

Anthology Guidelines

Who can apply?

This is an opportunity for writers and writer-directors who are keen to develop a career in screen fiction and are keen to work within a writers' room as part of a collaborative creative project. Participation may be a step towards either a career as a writer in broadcast or feature film drama.

Applicants must be Queensland residents.

When do I need to apply?

Applications close at 5pm, Monday April 24, 2017. Late applications will not be accepted.

How do I apply?

Applications are through SmartyGrants via:

<http://screenqueensland.smartygrants.com.au>

An automated application email will be sent to you within 30 minutes as confirmation that Screen Queensland has received your application. It is your responsibility as applicant to contact Screen Queensland if you do not receive an application receipt email.

What documents do I need to provide?

All applications must include:

- - 10-page writing sample
- - One page creative statement outlining why you want to be part of the initiative
- - CV
- - If relevant, a link to one example of previous work. (This is not a pre-requisite)

Incomplete applications will not be assessed.

How will my application be assessed?

Screen Queensland will assess each application against the following criteria:

- - the strength and originality of the writing sample, and the quality of the storytelling
- - the track record of the applicant, and the strategic benefit of this initiative to their career development within the Queensland industry

Eligible applications will be assessed by Screen Queensland executives.

Please note that Screen Queensland is committed to promoting diversity of opportunity in the screen industry as well as the diversity of screen stories. Alongside its commitment to gender equality and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander representation, SQ supports the expansion of talent and stories from all genders, cultural backgrounds and sexual orientations.
